

Wikipedia Microsite: First Build Review

Hey Tina,

Really loving how this is turning out! Appreciate this background also.

A few things to maybe consider refining:

- + Line height and line spacing between section headers and text—to build in some more hierarchy
- + Could we maybe look for a different top banner? Something in the neutral beige tones maybe?—only if there is a different one—please don't feel obliged to make something yourself, the coming week's deadlines are hectic for sure.
- + If you can, let's try to have the external links linked—and only if you'd like to take it further, maybe add in the hyperlinks in the main text (introductory paragraph) as well?

Thanks again and cheers, slack me if you need anything.

Leslie
